Farmingville, NY - On June 18, Supervisor Ed Romaine and Councilwoman Cartright attended the 104th birthday celebration for Lucy McKie, a Stony Brook resident and member of the Stony Brook Senior Citizen Club at the New Village Recreation Center. Ms. McKie, who turned 104 on June 9th, was presented with a proclamation and a birthday cake was provided for the guests.

"Lucy's spirit and her love of life is an inspiration," said Supervisor Romaine. "It's an honor to share this special birthday celebration with her and all the friends that she has here at the Stony Brook Senior Center."

"It was an honor to meet Lucy McKie this afternoon and commemorate the incredible milestone of her birthday. Lucy is a lively and energetic woman with a wealth of experience and information," commented Councilwoman Cartright. "I appreciate any opportunity to celebrate with the elders of the community. A person like Lucy is a living link to the history of America."
